

Summer Safety Life jacket loaner sites

Life jackets available at Duke Energy access areas

Whether swimming or boating, wearing a properly fitting life jacket is essential and can save a life. Life jackets in a variety of sizes are available for temporary use at many Duke Energy recreation access areas. Visitors may check out a life jacket at no charge and then return it to the kiosk when done. Life jacket loaner boards are run on an honor system, and availability will vary.

Catawba-Wateree Lakes (N.C. and S.C.)

Lake Norman

- Beatty's Ford Access Area, Pinnacle Access Area, Stumpy Creek Access Area

Mountain Island Lake

- Riverbend Access Area, Neck Road Access Area

Lake Wylie

- Buster Boyd Access Area, Ebenezer Access Area, South Point Access Area

Lake Wateree

- June Creek Access Area, Taylors Creek Access Area, Colonel's Creek Access Area, Wateree Creek Access Area, White Oak Access Area, Molly Creek Access Area, Buck Hill Access Area

Keowee-Toxaway Lakes (S.C.)

Lake Keowee

- South Cove Access Area, High Falls Access Area

Lake Jocassee

- Devil's Fork State Park

Nantahala Lakes (N.C.)

Lake Glenville

- Pines Recreation Area

Bear Lake

- Bear Creek Access Area

East Fork of the Tuckasegee River

- Shook Cove Access Area

Tuckasegee River Main Stem

- East La Port, Locust Creek, Dillsboro (Scotts Creek), Barkers Creek

Duke Energy Progress Lakes (N.C.)

Hyc0 Lake

- Hyc0 Lake Park Swimming Area